The North End Gun Club's Picnic.

One of the grandest and most enjoyable private picnics that have ever left the city, was given on the 23d inst. by the North End Gun Club, at Warwick's Park, a delightful place about 4 miles down the picturesque James River.

More than 200 persons comprised the party. The boat left the wharf at about 9 A. M.

Music was furnished for the occasion, the sweet strains enrapturing all as the party glided down the river. The monitor fleet was the recipient of hearty cheers, and those in charge responded with a hearty good-will. Warwick Park is splendidly fitted up for parties of this kind.

Glass-ball and Pigeon shooting was indulged in by the North End Gun Club. After lunch many boarded the steamer and were carried down the river to view the scenery. They returned in about two hours, after which the glass ball and pigeon shooting was again indulged in.

Dr. R. E. Jones made the score of the morning. In the afternoon it was a tie between Dr. R. E. Jones and Rev. G. D. Jimmerson.

To Dr. Jones, his wife and Mrs. Alice Royal's due the praise for the pleasant, excellently managed affair. It was a success in every particular, and no word of complaint was heard to fall from the lips of any.

"We have been told on this floor that the lower black mass does not care anything about government. But they have gained one hundred and fifty million dollars worth of property. One million of their children are enrolled in colored schools; still another million of their children of school age are knocking at school doors where there is no room for them. Crops raised by their labor in 1889 reached nine hundred million dollars in value. Thousands of them have risked their lives to vote. So familiar is their ardor to cast a ballot that shot-guns and cannon resound on election mornings more than once to frighten them from the polls.

They were born Americans, they will live Americans, they will die Americans."

From speech of Hon. L. E. McCOMAS of Maryland on the Federal Election Bill.

W. T. Carter Passed Away.

The funeral of W. T. Carter, brother of E. R. and Channing Carter, took place last Tuesday at 4 P. M. at the First Baptist Church. He departed this life Monday the 21st inst. at about 3 A. M. He bore his suffering with a fortitude that was remarkable. Rev. James H. Holmes officiated and preached a feeling sermon. The deceased professed religion on his death-bed.

The pall-bearers were: honorary, Messrs. C. P. Johnson, Henry Yancy, Solomon Banks; actives, Dan Robinson, T. N. White, Henry Mooreman, Hezekiah Curtis, Ellis Braxton, John Finney, James Shelton, Robert Robinson.

Undertaker W. Isaac Johnson officiated. The casket was cloth covered, silk trimmings with heavy silver mounted handles.

Mr. Carter was well known in this city. He worked at Mr. Robert Robinson's for a long while, after which he was employed at Mr. Baxter Jackson's establishment, corner 13th and Main Sts.

He was generally liked by all who knew him. The family have our sympathy.

The Planet Finds a Missing Son.

Quite a singular occurrence took place relative to the death of Sarah, the daughter of Rev. Wm. Troy. The family did not know where to write to Joshua, to inform him of his sister's death. All were ignorant as to his whereabouts.

Last Monday, Rev. Troy said he had just received a letter from the missing Joshua, who stated that he had just read in the PLANET the account of his sister's funeral and had hastened to write for particulars.

He was in Meridian, Mississippi, and while there read a copy of the PLANET, learning for the first time of his loss.

Ministers or Sunday Schools desiring these Bible Union Testaments for their own use, but not for sale to others, should send their requests, with recommendations or references, when they are not known, to the American Baptist Publication Society, 1420 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Penn., addressed to C. C. Britton, Bible Secretary.

The Following is

THE CALL FOR AN EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION

To be Held at Lynchburg, Va., July 30 & 31, 1890, at the Court St. Baptist Church.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize a State Educational Convention or Association.

The great need of educational facilities in this state for the colored people; the relation that a good practical education sustains to our welfare, as citizens, men of affairs and Christians; the deaden sentiment and latent powers which seem yet to obtain among the masses of our people; to inaugurate a movement that will awaken and arouse these sentiments and powers to active and practical use; how to use them and concentrate our efforts to the best possible advantage; to have every man and woman feel the solemn and weighty responsibility that rests upon each and all; to foster the school we have already started the Virginia Seminary, to foster ministerial education already begun, are the only apologies offered for inviting and urging upon you the importance, and indeed the necessity of attending such a meeting.

Knowing the interest you take in the cause of Christian education and your efforts to advance and elevate our people in general, we do not feel that it is too much for us to say that your presence is confidently expected.

It is proposed to consider the subject of education in all its phases—and especially in its relation to our people, from the stand-point of their environments—our surroundings constitute the most eloquent appeal that can be made; and we are satisfied that none to whom this call may come, seeing the condition of our people as it is, will refuse to contribute whatever they may be able for its betterment.

The following is the Committee on Call and Invitation:

Prof. D. N. Vassar, chairman; Rev. P. F. Morris, secretary; Prof. J. E. Jones, D. D., Rev. A. Binga, Jr., D. D., Revs. A. Gordon, A. Chisholm, R. H. Porter, D. Morris, R. Spiller, J. M. Armistead, Prof. D. B. Williams, Revs. Z. D. Lewis, H. Jamison, B. F. Fox, J. L. Backsdale, W. F. Graham, T. J. Chick, Bros. R. J. Morgan, A. Pride, T. G. Gladman, J. W. A. Pride, W. Hughes.

Terry, Reading, Pa.

"To those listening to this debate a stranger in the gallery would have supposed that the pending proposition was something to authorize the arrest and imprisonment, if not the hanging of the entire Democratic party.

It has been constantly iterated and reiterated from the beginning of the debate that this bill was intended to oppress and to impose upon to do some great wrong to the people of the South. In the name of all the gods at once, what harm will it do to have an honest election? Have you practiced dishonest elections so long that it will break your hearts if you have to stop it?" [Laughter.]

From speech of Hon. L. C. HOUK of Tennessee, June 30, on the Federal Election Bill.

"I am for this bill. Do you say it will not cure the evil? Let us try it. The power of the Federal Government is great. The fear of punishment will deter the evil-doer. Let us at least try what Federal power can do toward purifying the ballot-box, and the suppression of intimidation, false counting and ballot-box stuffing." [Applause.]

A WHITE MAN'S

He States So.

RICHMOND, VA.

I have watched the Federal election as though there is a wronged nation at people. At least a red handed outlaw would have us to believe that they would measure with us. Ah! how little those outlaws understand the impulses of a free people. Being accustomed as they have for years to intimidating a few colored men in a small section of this great country by murder, false trials, sham courts, night raids, and the lash, they now make bold to assert their intention of giving the whole nation a dose of the same medicine.

Is it possible that twenty-five years have been and sent time to obliterate from the minds the scenes of the past? Is it possible that they have forgotten the threats of 1861? Is it possible that they hope to resist intimidation and violence on the whole nation? If so let Congress pass the national election law, let it be placed upon the statute books and go into operation, then let them touch one line of it if they dare. Let them chase honest votes with shotguns if they can. Let us see then if they will have any more formidable posers to contend with than a frightened dorkies.

Yours truly,
A WHITE MAN.

Lenard, Maggie Jones, Bertha Norvell, Ella White, Nellie Murrell, Virgie Lenard, Messrs. George Morgan, George Hobson, Peter Smith and Briggs and Mrs. Blake. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.
